YOUR TURN TOPICS

How are you using music in your nursing practice? What are its effects? 24(2):55-56
How do you carry out the Healthy People 2000 and the United States Preventive Services Task Force recommendations on immunizations, use of hormone replacement therapy, and prevention of incontinence in your older clients? Identify client information handouts you provide. 24(10):45-47
How would you respond if you overheard a family member accusing a fellow staff member of "doing nothing?" 24(6):43-46
In your practice, what experiences of patients and family members could be classified as "a good death" or a positive process of dying? 24(7):47-52
"My career focuses on the aged." At what point do you consider yourself in this category? 24(8):41-44
Nurses know that to change behavior, more than information is necessary. Have you found any motivational strategies that are particularly successful? 24(4):51-53
To what extent are wellness and health promotion strategies available to nursing facility residents (e.g., routine mammograms, nutrition education)? 24(9):44-46
What are your best examples of "restorative care" in the nursing home? 24(5):47-53
What methods do you use to make mealtime a pleasurable but efficient experience in your setting? 24(3):52-55
What moral and/or ethical challenges do you face in your practice? What mechanisms, if any, are used to process or resolve specific problems? 24(12):41-43
When considering the needs of all age groups, what is the fairest way to allocate health resources in the United States? 24(11):47-50
